Berkeley Stake's Primary ward representatives in the Chil-dren's Friend Drive achieved a notable success again in 1954, by having every ward fill more than its quota of subscribers for the Children's Friend.

Children's Friend Subscription Quota

Four wards succeeded in securing subscriptions from 100 per cent of their ward's families which have children in the home. These wards are Claremont, East Richmond, Martinez, and Rodeo. In all 590 families in Berkeley Stake will receive this alert Children's Friend for parents' and children's Friend for parents' and children's enjoynment.

The "city of the angels" now boasts the knowledge that at last an angel gazes ever their beautiful but smogbound Los Angeles. It's the angel Moroni statue which was raised October 20 1954 to its peak position atop a 150-foot tower of the LDS temple in the Southland.

The 15-foot angel is the arr production of New York sculptor, Elder Millard F. Malin, to grace the $5,000,000 House of the
